

The André Sobel River of Life Foundation's The Pearl of Havana

THE ELEGANCE OF A CUBAN NIGHTCLUB, complete with white evening gowns, Panama hats, and crystal chandeliers and entertainment from the Tropidanza dancers. Diva Niki Haris and the fabulous Desi Arnaz Jr. on congas brought guests at The Andre Sobel River of Life Foundation's Pearl of Havana to a bubbling titillation at the gala fundraiser. It was the Foundation's Santa Barbara coming out party - replete with numerous locals and stars and supporters from Los Angeles - all of whom were gripped by the touching and sincere stories of Foundation beneficiaries - desperately ill children and their families.

"The Andre Sobel River of Life Foundation enables single parents of children with life-threatening illnesses to care for their children full time by relieving financial burdens when other resources are exhausted or unavailable," explained founder Valerie Sobel. "This is done in the hope that no child should die alone," she continued.

As she looked out over the over 500 guests, entertainers, and volunteers she shared, "This room is wonderfully littered with my life," melting the hearts of most in the room before the entertainment even began to heat up the enormous tent.

Releasing guests to the ongoing revelry, Sobel quipped, "This event took two villages."

Members of part of the village included the owners of the Nesbitt Estate & Polo Fields who opened their home to the influx of guests and many local celebrities.
